

Oregon New Sanctuary Movement

January 24, 2011

Dear Friends,

We write to invite you to join us for our Second Annual Love Has No Borders Celebration Dinner! This event will take place on Thursday, March 10th at 6:30pm at Ascension Catholic Church, 7507 SE Yamhill, Portland.

You've heard their stories: you've eaten with them, worked with them, shared their hopes and dreams and grieved with them when those hopes were shattered. Our immigrant friends are so bolstered by the knowledge that people care. By our simplest actions they are made aware of that care. The words of Martin, as he was accompanied by several ONSM members to the ICE offices, acknowledge that awareness. He said, "You made me feel strong."

The Love Has No Borders Celebration Dinner is a time for people of faith and conscience to come together to honor our collective work to provide hospitality and create justice alongside our immigrant sisters and brothers and to vision and dream together for the coming year.

In 2011 we will continue to:

- Provide prophetic hospitality to immigrant families impacted by immigration enforcement
- Advocate for just and humane immigration reform and an end to ICE/local law enforcement collaboration
- Lead transformational educational opportunities for people of faith and conscience on the complexities of immigration

We need your continued support. Our growing base of volunteers requires more resources to keep folks informed and engaged. We know that you care about heeding the call to provide a radical welcome to immigrants in our community. Placing an ad in the dinner program is a great way to reach out to folks and show your support for the important work of the Oregon New Sanctuary Movement. The enclosed form explains how to buy tickets and place an ad.

We hope to see you on March 10th and at the next Oregon New Sanctuary Movement event to move forward justice for immigrants in our community.

Peace,

Beth Poteet
ONSM Coordinator
